GUIDELINES FOR USE

- Use of the wall may be limited by weather conditions, traffic conditions and staff availability and can be cancelled or delayed due to any one of the listed factors and some that are not listed. If your use is cancelled by the REC or start time delayed by more than one hour and use of the wall is forfeited, you may reschedule for the same use on another available date with no additional fee.
- Participants must weigh at least 45 lbs. and no more than 245 lbs. and properly fit the harness as it is intended to be used for safety reasons. Some people who meet the weight requirements do not fit the harness and may not climb the wall.
- Participants must be at least six or in the first grade to use the wall and demonstrate to the wall operator’s satisfaction that they are able and willing to follow the safety and use instructions.
- Participants must complete a Climbing Consent Form to climb. People under the age of 18 must have the form signed by a legal parent or guardian. If guardianship is separated, the form must be signed by both legal guardians.
- The $200 deposit is non-refundable. If the renting organization cancels use less than three months prior to the date of the reservation, the $200 deposit is non-refundable; cancellations prior to 3 months of the reservation may be eligible to reapply the deposit to a new reservation.

Confirmation of reservation is given by the REC for reservation to be valid. Upon confirmation, download the “REC Climbing Consent Form” which should be copied and completed by each participant and presented at the time of participation. The “Event Use Form” will be sent to you with the confirmation letter and should be sent with deposit to the REC within two weeks of receiving the form. We will not hold reservations past 3 weeks without the Event Use Form and deposit.
